

Dr. Lyon's
PERFECT
Tooth Powder
Cleanses, preserves and beautifies the teeth, and
Purifies the breath
A superior dentifrice
for people of refinement
Established in 1866 by
S. H. Lyon, D.D.S.

Newbern Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWBERN, N. C., October 10.—Mr. W. B. Hudson and daughter, Miss Ivey, have gone to Washington, D. C., Mr. Hudson on business, Miss Ivey to enter school.
Mr. and Mrs. George Duffy have returned to their home in Swansboro, after spending a few days visiting Mrs. Duffy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wolfenden.
Mrs. George A. Caton and children have returned home after a visit to relatives in Sampson county.
Mr. T. A. Green and family, who have been spending the summer at their summer home in Black Mountain, have returned home.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Munger are spending a week or so with relatives in Philadelphia.
Mrs. C. B. Hill, who has been visiting in Hyde county for some time, has returned home.

The Week at the Mecklenburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
THE MECKLENBURG HOTEL, CHASE CITY, VA., October 10.—Everything will soon be in readiness for the two great meets soon to be held here—the National Beagle Club of America, Mr. W. G. Rockefeller, president; Charles R. Stevenson, secretary, on October 23d, lasting ten days. Every one has a most cordial invitation to be present at this meet, whether members of the club or not. The annual meet of the Virginia-Carolina Fox-Hunters' Association will come directly after this on November 4th, and will be a week of social enjoyment, as well as one of rare pleasure for the sportsmen. Many handsome prizes have been sent in, among them comes first the Mecklenburg trophy, a very handsome silver loving cup, awarded the Mecklenburg pack last year; a beautiful loving cup, presented by Dr. A. H. Boyd, of Charlottesville, Va., a handsome set of spurs, a thoroughbred Shetland pony, valued at $125, offered by the Mecklenburg stock farm; a beautiful pla, offered by Mr. George C. Jefferson, Richmond, Va., to the lady getting the brush after the longest chase. Some of those who will be here are Mr. Polk Miller, Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. T. Gilbert Pearson, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Burwell, Baltimore; Mr. W. H. Bagley, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Lizzie Edmonds, Charlotte Courthouse, Va.; Mr. R. L. Carr, Durham, N. C.; Mr. J. E. Chastain, New York.
Miss Clara C. Capehart, Avoca, N. C., left this week to return later for the fox-hunt.
Mrs. George F. Archer, a very charming representative from Greenville, Miss., is spending some time here.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bradsher, of Durham, N. C., old friends of the Mecklenburg, received a warm welcome this week, and will remain for an indefinite period.
Master Buell Cooke, who is attending Trinity School at Durham, spent the week end with his parents here.
Dr. E. C. Laird has just returned from the International Tuberculosis Conference at Washington and is very enthusiastic over his trip, considering it the grandest thing he has ever attended.
Some of those registered here are W. W. Bagley, Raleigh, N. C.; H. K.

McCreery, Charles L. Brown, James J. Hickey, Fred. N. Strudwick, E. P. Brinkley, Richmond, Va.; H. V. Thomas, J. H. Wilson, E. Crabbe, Baltimore; C. J. Faulkner, Boynton, S. H. Short, Petersburg; J. E. Puckett, Burkeville, Miss. Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.
Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.
The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.
Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.
Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.
The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Buena Vista Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BUENA VISTA, VA., October 10.—Misses Louise Meriwether, Sallie Johnson, Carolyn Hazen, Mary Richmond and Caroline Hardwick have returned from Lynchburg, where they attended the fair and the Merry Widow.
Mrs. E. L. Embree is visiting at Hollins Institute.
Miss Mary Glasgow has returned from a visit to Mrs. N. C. Rees at "Fair View," her lovely country home.
Mr. H. R. Prichard, of Petersburg, is the guest of his uncle, Mr. N. B. Prichard.
Mrs. Eva Hamilton is visiting Mrs. Edmund Randolph.
Mrs. Mary Cunningham, who is visiting her son, Mr. J. H. Cunningham, is quite sick.
Mr. Henry Cunningham has secured a position in Lynchburg, and left Monday to assume his duties.
Katherine, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wright, is ill with meningitis.
Mr. W. T. Paxton, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Miss Mamie Hodges returned Monday from a visit to Mrs. N. C. Rees at "Fair View," her lovely country home.
Mrs. Charles Jordan and Miss Mabel Jordan returned from a visit to friends in Roanoke.
Mr. Russell Wilson and Mr. Horace Lackey were guests Sunday of Mr. W. H. Lackey.
Hon. Hugh White, of Lexington, spent Tuesday in the city.
Mr. H. R. Willis spent several days this week at Anderson Courthouse on professional business.
Mr. H. S. Rucker's little son, Harry, is confined to the house with bronchitis.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Parker and little son will leave this week for California to spend the winter.
Mr. Herbert Mills, who spent several days in Lynchburg, returned Monday.

Gordonsville Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GORDONSVILLE, VA., October 10.—Miss Annie Dayvorn is on a visit to relatives in Richmond.
Mr. and Mrs. Holmes McMurran, after a pleasant stay of some days with the former's sister, Mrs. W. O. Blakey, have returned to their home in Newport News.
Mr. H. P. Clowes left Wednesday for Pratt, where he has several houses to paint.
Mr. E. P. Faber has accepted a position on the Virginia Air Line Railway between Gordonsville and Strasburg.
Sergeant R. G. Watkins and family are visiting relatives in Richmond and attending the fair. Mr. E. B. Hughes is filling Mr. Watkins' position while he is away.
Miss Mabel Gilum has returned to her home at Madison Mills after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. James L. Faber. She was accompanied home by her nephew, Master Oscar Faber.
Mr. E. V. Breeden has been spending the week with relatives in Richmond.
Mrs. J. L. Schindler and little daughter, Thelma, were Charlottesville visitors this week.
Miss Katharine Schlosser is quite sick.
Miss Agnes Beckham left Saturday for Greensboro, N. C., for a two weeks' visit to her brother, Mr. A. V. Beckham, and other relatives.
Mr. Jack Scott, of King Charles, has been spending the week with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Scott.
Mr. H. M. Morris and family, Miss Ida Camper, Messrs. E. T. Champion, Leslie Acree and W. O. Thomas were among those who attended the Virginia State Fair in Richmond this week.
Miss Lela Duke is visiting relatives in Richmond.
Messrs. F. J. Howland and R. B. Goodlow witnessed "The Sinner" in Charlottesville Wednesday.

Raleigh Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 10.—Society folk of Raleigh and vicinity, of the whole State were deeply interested in two weddings in Raleigh this week, those of Mr. Fabius J. Haywood, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Burton on Wednesday afternoon, and Mr. Charles Vernon Liles, of Wadesboro, and Miss Estelle Whitfield Timberlake, on Tuesday morning. The Haywood-Burton wedding was in Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal Church, the bride party including Mrs. George Little, dame of honor; Miss Annie Daily Burton, maid of honor; and Misses Mary Carroll Burton, bridesmaid; Mr. Grimes Haywood, brother of the bridegroom, best man, and Messrs. Paul Allen, Charles Skinner, and Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-presidents of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.
Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Walter Pemberton, Little Rock, Ark.; Mr. John Burton, Weidon; Mr. Andrew Burton, Heidelberg.
The Liles-Timberlake wedding was at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Burton Timberlake. The wedding march was by Miss Sadie Duncan; Miss Alice Newcomb was maid of honor, and Mr. N. P. Liles, of Wadesboro, brother of the bridegroom, best man. Among those here for the marriage were Miss Julia Brown, Danville; Mr. Manly Clark, Clarkson; and Mrs. C. H. Ward, Wilmington.
Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.
The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.
The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.
Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation of most pleasant kind was created here this week by the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Alex B. Andrews, Jr., a prominent attorney of this city, and son of Colonel A. B. Andrews, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and Miss Helen M. Sharples, of Philadelphia. The announcement was first made early in the week at the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sharples, at Media, Pa.

The first of a series of concerts by the music faculty and students of St. Mary's School for the present term was given Tuesday evening most successfully to the delight of a large and fashionable audience. The participants were Miss Martha A. Dowd, Miss Sarah Gould, Miss Bertha Luney, Miss Charlotte Kendall Hull, Miss Pixley, Miss Hermine H. Scheper.

Of much social interest was the presentation of "A Winter's Tale" Monday night by faculty and students of the Baptist University for Women, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Frances Blount, Miss Sallie Baker, Miss Grace Rogers interpreted some of the most difficult parts with remarkable credit.

The music department of the Woman's Club, of Raleigh, met Thursday afternoon in the club building and devoted the afternoon to the study of the Bach epoch and school of music, a most profitable afternoon being spent. Directing this department of the club are Mrs. T. P. Jerman, chairman; Mrs. Wade R. Brown, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. C. B. Williams, Miss Mary Coles, each of them accomplished musicians.

Mrs. J. M. Heck entertained delightfully at dinner Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl Chadwick Heck, and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Grimes Cowper, who are two charming debutantes in Raleigh social life this season. Miss Heck is just back from a trip through Europe. The guests were Miss Emmie Haywood, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Brewer, Miss Villa Norris, Miss Louise Wright, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Fannie Johnson; Messrs. Walter Clark, W. H. Pace, Gordon

Smith, William Little, Frances Cox Hubert Hill, William Boylan, Charee Johnson, J. W. Allison, Dr. Joel Whitaker.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts proved a charming hostess for the Kentness Book Club Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Sarah Cheshire, Miss Belle Pescud, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Loula Briggs, Miss Penelope Davis, May Jones, Elizabeth Briggs, Annie Kootie, Mary Armistead Jones, Mary Latta, Miss Sallie Dorch, Mrs. F. C. Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Royal, Mrs. George Little and Mrs. C. B. Crowell. Notable features of the literary program were papers on "The Rise of the Drama," by Miss Cheshire; "The Social Position of the Actor and Playwright in the Shakespearean Age," by Miss Belle Pescud, and "Current Topics," by Miss Mary Armistead Jones.

The Olla Podrida Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. N. Jones, delightful features of entertainment provided by the hostess blending with a literary program of special interest in making the meeting one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held by the club.

Something of a social sensation